6. White lines at Whitepost

Mrs Pitman has managed to get hold of Mr. Quick who is going to get the lines inspected.

7. Speedwatch

Mr. Perry reported that the last 2 scheduled events had been cancelled due to bad weather; the next one is due to take place on 18th January.

8. Settlement at Wellisford

The PC would like an update on this, it was decided to invite the enforcement officer to a PC meeting, the Clerk will liaise with Cllr. Habgood to get this organised.

9. SID

Everyone was pleased to see the SID in place near the play area, this is the last time the parish will have this facility due to their termination. Once Mr. Grabham has the figures (cost of renting etc) the PC will discuss a way forward.

10. Goal Posts

The Clerk is looking into who would be able to get the post weight tested.

11. Notice Board – postponement

This will be discussed again at a later date.

12. Footpaths

The footpath across Crown field has been damaged with the recent bad weather; Mr. Moore said that the VH will make it good. The footpath at Wellisford has been reported and will be dealt with.

Cllr. Habgood gave a short speech on the Council Merge and asked all Councillors to respond to the recent email.

The meeting closed at 8.40
