The meeting closed at 7.50

Marilyn Lilley and Saranne Cessford who have kindly offered to oversee the updating of the PC website have been in touch with Simon Hutchings who hosts the site for help with tuition. The software is very out-of-date and makes the site difficult to use. It was suggested by Simon that the site was updated at a cost of £720. He currently charges the PC £100 a year to host the site and would waive that fee for the first year.

Marilyn and Saranne are to speak with Simon to see if the fee could be reduced, they will also speak to another company to get a comparison, everyone agreed that the site must be user friendly for Marilyn and Saranne as they are giving their time freely to keep it updated.
